KCinfertility To Host 8th Annual Path to Parenthood 5k on September 17th at English Landing Park

[Parkville, MO: KCinfertility hosts its 8th Annual Path to Parenthood 5K on Saturday, September 17th at English Landing Park in Parkville, Missouri. Proceeds from this event fund KC Infertility's Family Building Grant program, providing financial aid to KC locals to help with treatment and adoption costs.

Participants of all fitness levels are encouraged to participate in the 5K run/walk event. Additionally, all ages are welcome to participate in a One Mile Awareness Walk and/or Kids Fun Run. Those unable to participate in person can still show their support by signing up as a Virtual Runner.

The race begins at 8:30 am. Early registration is encouraged. All participants will receive a finisher medal. Additionally, all who sign up before September 1st will receive a free T-shirt.

This is the first year the event will be held at English Landing Park in Parkville, MO.

"We are excited to see everyone at this beautiful new location. It's such a fun way to support local parents-in-waiting." Said board President, Stephanie Voss

About KCinfertility: At the Kansas City Infertility Awareness Foundation (KCinfertility is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was founded in 2011 by four local women. Allison Spencer, Nicolle Hays, Meagan Stach, and Tami Lewis shared a vision of creating a network of support for those affected by infertility in the Kansas City area. Today, KCinfertility builds on that vision by connecting those affected by infertility to a community in which they are understood, while offering emotional support, financial aid and educational resources.
